

BARRY MOLINE

TEAMWORK ♦ COMMUNICATIONS ♦ LEADERSHIP

Leaders aren't born, they're made. And anyone can lead – you just have to know the ingredients of great leadership. When you learn what the best leaders do and then act consistently, you will find it easy to lead. In this highly entertaining and interactive presentation, Barry breaks down leadership and actions necessary to develop and grow as a leader. Barry has solved the leadership puzzle. Individuals will be inspired to lead from every level of their organization.

“BARRY OFFERS BOTH THE INSPIRATION AND THE SKILLS TO SUCCEED.”

Liz Joyner, Founder & CEO, The Village Square

NHL to CEO - DISTINGUISHING YOURSELF WITH THE MINDSET OF A LEADER

Participants will walk away as highly motivated leaders. They will discover and build on their past leadership experiences and learn how to quickly bring people together, the key for great teamwork. They will take responsibility for their role in accomplishing their organization's mission. And finally, they will learn the leader's mindset and fully understand the changes they must make to be a great leader themselves.

Barry Moline has been a CEO for more than 25 years. From a moment at age 16 when he volunteered for a difficult assignment at a hockey game, he learned that leaders step up and take responsibility. That moment led to an early career refereeing professional hockey, including the NHL, which set the stage for success as a CEO. Barry knows that everyone can lead and is eager to share the practical secrets of great leaders and their stories.

Key Takeaways:

- The major personality traits leaders must have, what's important and what isn't
- Specific actions that distinguish you from others so you get noticed as a leader
- Achieving the 5 most important characteristics of a leader: Purpose, Grit, Trust, Accountability & Mindset

Who Should Attend:

- Trailblazers who want to be well-rounded leaders
- Managers and supervisors who want their staff to take greater initiative
- Individuals who see themselves as future leaders and want to learn the best actions to take
